

EVELINE VAN DE GRIEND | CV

Lives and works in Berlin, Germany.

18/03/1976 Born in 's-Hertogenbosch, The Netherlands.

1993-1997 Graduated from the Royal Academy for Art and Design, 's-Hertogenbosch, The Netherlands.

Eveline van de Griend was born in 's-Hertogenbosch, The Netherlands. She grew up in Africa, England and Russia, before returning to The Netherlands to study drawing, painting and sculpture at the Art Academy 's-Hertogenbosch. She taught at Art Academies in The Netherlands AKV St. Joost, Breda and AKV 's-Hertogenbosch, gave lectures internationally, and was an artist-in-residence in France, Italy, Germany and South Africa. In Pietrasanta, Italy she studied the classical technique of carving in marble. Van de Griend founded Draw Berlin and worked as a professor at the ESDIP, private art school in Berlin. Eveline van de Griend was appointed as jury member of large exhibitions. In 2016 she was part of the advisory and exhibition committee of Bosch Open Expo 2016, a tribute to Jheronimus Bosch in 's-Hertogenbosch, The Netherlands and in 2017 of the Summer Expo 2017 at Museum de Fundatie in Zwolle, Netherlands.

She initiated the international exhibition Neue Heimat with curator Sarie Nijboer in the Netherlands. Since 2017 Van de Griend has been working on different Art collaborations with the British Photographer Matthew Coleman and Oliver Ajkovic from Austria/ Montenegro.

Currently van de Griend is working on a new series of large paintings and she has started to create artworks in VR (Virtual Reality).
